In Real Love I Come To You,

As Salaam Alaihim to all my brothers and sisters of all shades of black in this struggle for our survival in this world globally from the people who have enslaved us to their to their will. We are not their lovers, brothers, sisters, kind or friends, they are our enemies that only want us to be slaves to them and to be ruled over by them. And if we resist their control over our lives they place us in prison stealing our youth or they kill us. Live in the reality that we exist in within this universe where we can find our truth in life. Study Surah ~~3~~ Ali Imran 118-120 you don't have to practice Islam to understand what is clear like clean water.

Who taught us to love they enemy? Our enemies. So they can continue to do the most inhumane things known to a human being and we will accept their cruelty towards us, then forgive them showing them love while all they give us is hate. They will never love us when your shade of blackness of your skin they hate about you and they despise about you. No matter how good you are, how smart you are or how much money you have to try to impress them they will never love you like they love their own kind. You can be Lebron James and still be subjected to being being put back in your place if you make a mistake, they will hurry up and handle you to remind you nigger that you are a rich slave they allowed to be ~~rich~~ rich.

Ask the Jews to love a Nazi and see what their response will be to you. But you have been condition to love a enemy that treated us worse than Nazis treated Jews and they still mistreat us, but you love them begging them to love you and treat you as their equal. Stop waiting for the slave masters to set you free. Free your selves, There's only one way to physically free yourself, you have to be willing to die for it. Will you kill for it? They did and obtained their own freedom through a revolution recorded in history books. I am only a mental farmer that plant the seeds that's the truth and the way into your minds hoping it grows. I am not in the way of progress. I am the way like the door you must walk through if you ever want to be free of our enemy. Real love always come in the form of the truth. I just gave you real love, you should feel. Peace, love, loyalty and Trust is what unite us plus Respect.
